Dear Mr. Gamez:

This is a final response to your 10 January 2018 appeal to the Agency Release Panel (ARP) regarding your request for records under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The ARP carefully considered your petition and determined that the appeal should be denied in full. As the Executive Secretary of the ARP, I am the CIA official responsible for informing you of the appellate determination, described more fully in what follows.

The ARP upheld the initial action to neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request in accordance with Section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information protected from disclosure by Section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, and Section 102A(i)(l) of the National Security Act of 1947. Therefore, the appropriate FOIA exemptions are (b)(1) and (b)(3). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and Section 102A(i)(l) of the National Security Act of 1947.

In accordance with the provisions of the FOIA, you have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in federal district court. Alternatively, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies. Using services offered by OGIS does not affect your right to pursue litigation. For more information, including how to contact OGIS, please consult its website at <http://ogis.archives.gov>.

Sincerely,
